NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY, APRIL 7, 1883.

Put away your sleighs until next November.

This fine weather has given quite a boom to building operations.

The vote on Supervisors in Grant was a tie between John Wiley and Jerry Jarvis.

The unearthly screech of the tug Nat. Stickney's whistle has been heard a number of times this week.

There is a rumor that E. A. Faunce is going to contest the election of R. Ianson, as Supervisor of Tuscarora.

Albert Todd reports that the Flora is expected to leave Detroit one week from next Wednesday, 18th, for Cheboygan.

The ice is fast disappearing in front of the harbor and considerable open water can be seen this side of Bois Blanc Island.

The Algoma made three trips this week, coming over Sunday, Wednesday and yesterday. She carries large quantities of freight each trip.

The railroad company's warehouse on the dock has been kept pretty well filled with freight since the Algoma commenced running here.

The weather last Sunday morning was about the greatest April fool on the people of the season. Just imagine six degrees below zero for a spring morning.

A special meeting of the Board of Supervisors has been called for April 20th, at which time the organization of the newly elected board will be perfected.

A telegram was received Wednesday stating that the tubing for the artesian well at the water works would be shipped that day. When it will get here is another question.

Wetmore & Paddock are all torn up in their store this week, giving it a fresh coat of paint, but they are full of business and next week will have everything nicely arranged.

J. C. Bontecou, who recently purchased the Potoskey Record, this week assumes the editorial quill, and promises to make improvements as fast as the business will warrant. He starts out well.

Mr. Beebe of Columbus, Ohio, who owned the Indian River hotel, which burned down a few years since, is talking of erecting a fine summer residence on the site where the hotel formerly stood.

At the election in Beaupre, an effort was made by the Mackinaw City folks to change the polling place to that village, but they were out-voted by the electors residing in other portions of the township.

A. P. McKinnon has completed a very successful winter's operation and the result is 100,500 cubic feet square timber and 1,340,000 feet of logs. The timber has been sold to Burton & Thompson, a Canadian firm.

Mr. Davidson, the photographer, who has been here for several summers past will soon return and open his gallery. It will be refitted with the new scenery, etc., and the new styles in photographs will be introduced.

Farmers in Cheboygan county cannot invest a dollar to a better advantage than by subscribing to the Northwest Farmer, published by D. C. Leach, at Traverse City, Mich. It is just what every intelligent farmer ought to have.

The union temperance meeting at the Methodist church last Sunday evening drew out a large audience, the church being full. Dr. Hartley delivered a very interesting address and told some plain truths, but in a manner that no person could take the least offense.

The President has appointed Judge Gresham, of Indiana, Postmaster General and he has accepted the appointment. Judge Gresham was a brilliant soldier during the rebellion, and was appointed to his present position of Judge of the United States district court by President Grant.

Our cotemporary says the meeting of the Michigan Press association at Detroit last week was slimly attended, and as gives a reason that most of them had all they could do to keep out of the poor-house during the past cold winter. Well he knows how it is himself, and an "honest confession is good for the soul."

The prohibitionists have the satisfaction seeing the Democratic press claiming that the recent election settles the question of the submission to the vote of the people a prohibition amendment to the constitution. That the success of the Union ticket meant that the people were opposed to the submission of the question.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a table giving the average temperature, coldest day in each month, the amount of snow fall each month, and total for the winter, etc., for the past five winters. The statement was prepared for the TRIBUNE by Hon. Jacob Walton, and will prove valuable for reference. Cut it out and preserve it. We are frequently in receipt of letters desiring just such information, and propose printing a number of slips to use in reply to applications for information.

Rev. R. M. Thompson, feeling the need of rest, will hold no services tomorrow, but will resume his pastorate of the Independent Church, and preach, one week from to-morrow evening. Sunday school at the Oddfellow's hall at 12 M. to-morrow.

The Potoskey correspondent of the Harbor Springs Independent says: "The depot boys are in their war paint on account of an item in the Cheboygan Democrat, and copied in the Harbor Springs Republican, in which they are charged with robbing unwary ticket buyers by means of a crack in the ticket shelf. The article makes it appear a deep laid scheme of a soulless corporation, when the facts are that a butter-fingered Cheboyganite dropped a quarter through a crack, and it went between the ceilings, where it could not be got out. To base an accusation of swindling upon a solitary instance of that kind is as ridiculous as it is unjust."

A Card.

In reply to the fool who wrote for the Democrat in reference to April Fool, would say the cognomen "Professor" does not belong to party alluded to. As to fire wardens viewing the premises, one of whom, on enquiry, was not certain as to whether he held the office as fire warden or not, examined premises accompanied by one of village trustees, and pronounced the same unsafe. Would advise the Democrat to ascertain facts before publishing. If not satisfactory call on L'homme gen'l wus demery bien satisfait.
